NEVER mark down a price mark on a Christmas present if the mark does not indicate that you are properly extravagant, buy at Hearins and they will know you got the best for the least money.

NEVER tell your little boy there is no Santa Claus, but bring him to our show window and let him see for himself and then come in and make his heart glad by buying him a nice Christmas present.

NEVER buy more Christmas presents than you can afford, but buy from us and you can afford a great many for a small amount of cash.

NEVER give a minister a pair of slippers if there is a small boy in the family. Small boys like to be happy on Christmas—not miserable, so buy something nice

NEVER ask a girl for a kiss when she is under the mistletoe-take it, and if she gets huffy come to Hearins and buy her a nice present and all will be right

NEVER give your husband a box of cigars, give him one of those nice baskets put up at Hearins and part of it may come your way

NEVER get mixed up and send your girl the present she gave you last year, but come to Hearins and buy her a nice present for less than others cost them.

NEVER warn a woman she is standing under the mistletoe; if she is homely she will be your enemy for life, if she is pretty and smart she will tell you and not without reason that you are foolish not to go to Hearins and look through their stock before you buy, for they have as near everything as you ever saw in one

And boys you know your girl says every Christmas Tom Hearin puts up the nicest baskets she ever saw. Be sure and buy from him.

A bold attempt was made to rescue Berry Howard before the train left Pineville Saturday night, but it was defeated by the courage of sheriff Broughton, Conductor Doody and Engineer Langan, and Howard was safely delivered at Frankfort. Howard says he evaded arrest because he could not be assured of bond. It was reported in Frankfort that Howard might be a witness, either for the Commonwealth or defense, in the approaching trial of Jim Howard.

"WHAR DEW I CUM IN?"

(Being the Soliloquy of a Farmer on the Free Raw Sugar Question.)

Thar's a mighty lot er talkin' about farmers 'n thar rights, 'N the wonderful prosperity that beet growin' invites. Thar's er heap of foolish crowin' 'n the "beats" begin ter shout 'N holler fer the Tariff ter keep free raw sugar out! But I notis that the beet-producin' farms are very few, An' the farmers through the country aint got much ef it ter dew. The hull land aint a-raisin' beets, 'n aint goin' ter begin, Beet growin's right fer sum, I guess-but, whar dew I cum in?

The farmer gits four dollars now fer every ton o' beets-A hansum price, I must allow-but hidin' sum deceits. Beet sugar manyfacterers admit es they hev found Thet "granylated" costs 'em sumthin' like tew cents a pound. In fact thet leaves a profit on which they'd greatly thrive-And-if it kin be sold fer three, why should we pay 'em FIVE? It seems ter me es thet's a game thet's mighty like a skin--But-if thar's any benefit-waal-whar dew I cum in?

When Uncle Sam's in want o' cash we're glad ter help him out, 'N we'll stand all the taxes thet are needed, never doubt, But when his pocket-book's well lined an' nary cent he lacks, Et seems ter me his duty's ter repeal thet sugar tax. Them fellers wot is interested sez it's to protect The beet-producin' farmer that the duty they collect, But I guess thet explanation es a little bit too thin-The sugar maker,-he's all right;-but-whar dew we cum in?

Take off raw sugar duty an' the price will quickly fall, To everybody's benefit, fer sugar's used by all. The poor will bless the Government that placed it in thar reach-('N millions of our citizens free sugar now beseech) The dealer '11 be delighted—less expenditure fer him-More demand 'n bigger profits-which at present are but slim. An' the farmer 'll be as well paid as he ever yet hes ben-But he'll buy his sugar cheaper-thet's whar he an' I'll cum in.

Now, whar's the sense er reason of the sugar tax to-day, When our treasury's a-bulgin' an' we hev no debts ter pay? The duty on raw sugar's Fifty million every year-An' the people's got ter pay it—thet's a fact thet's very clear. Fifty million! Great Jerusha! Ter protect beet magnates, too, Why should they tax ALL the people—just ter help a scattered FEW? And the FEW? Beet-sugar MAKERS! Don't it really seem a sin Thus ter help an' fill thar coffers? Whar dew you an' I cum in?

The farmer growin' beets hes got a contract price fer years,-Free raw sugar wouldn't hurt him, an' of it he has no fears, But mebbe, like myself-he's also growing fruit so nice-Ter preserve it—at a profit—he needs sugar—at a price! The repealing of the duty, surely cuts the price in twe-Thet'll make a mighty difference, neighbor, both ter me an' you! Let the sugar manyfactrer make such profits as he kin-Ter him it may seem right enuff-but whar dew I cum in?

An' I aint agoin' ter swaller all the argyments they shout Thet the farmers need protection—an must bar raw sugar out. Common sense is plainly showin' that the people in the land Want raw sugar free in future—an' its freedom will demand. 'Tis a tax no longer needed-hateful to the public view,-Taxing millions of our people to enrich a favored few. They can't blind me any longer with the foolish yarns they spin,-While they're busy makin' money-whar dew you and I cum in?

I'm agoin' ter keep on hustlin', talkin', pleadin' with my frends,-Aint no sense in lettin' others gain thar selfish privet ends. I'm agoin' ter write termorrer to my Congressman 'nd say Thet he oughter do his best ter kill that tax without delay! Feller-farmers, do your utmost- whether you grow beets or not-To repeal the tax on sugar-you can but improve your lot! Cheaper sugar helps your pocket, greater blessings you can win-When we've three-cent granylated-that's whar you an' I cum in!

The bone on the pyramid was rescued from destruction by the white fingers of a girl, who dressed it and hung it over the outside door. When it had been lodged there an hour a man came in. He was tall, and as he came under the "conjure" he brushed It with his head and dislodged it.

"Well, you're it," laughed the girl, as he stooped and picked it from the floor. "That is the first time you ever came under the wishbone."

"Will you break it with me, Nell? You know I believe in it as an omen. We will both wish, and the one that gets the wish piece must tell the other what wish was made."

"Oh, let's tell beforehand. Health and prosperity is all I wish for. Am I not moderate?"

"I wish," said the man, "that we are married at Christmas, and live happily ever."

"That sounds like the ending of a dime novel love story. See that we are not even engaged, it would take stronger force than that of a wishbone to marry us by Christmas."
